MINI-SKOOL EARLY LEARNING CENTERS ACQUIRES SHORT STUFF & CO.

Mini-Skool Early Learning Centers, one of North America's largest privately owned child care and early education providers is pleased to announce the May, 2007 acquisition of Short Stuff & Co. in Plymouth Meeting, PA. Located at 2914 Walton Road. This center will operate as Flanagan's Preschools, joining the two other market area Flanagan's Preschools in Conshohocken and Collegeville, PA.

"We are very pleased to welcome this school to our family of early learning centers," says Sharon Moran, Chief Operating Officer for Mini-Skool Early Learning Centers. "With Short Stuff & Co. joining Flanagan's Preschools, we now have a three center presence in the greater Philadelphia market. Flanagan's Preschool provides quality child care for today's families, with creative programs and activities designed for children from six weeks of age through pre-school. We also offer before and after school care and an exciting summer camp program."

The family of Mini-Skool Early Learning Centers, with corporate headquarters in Scottsdale, Arizona, operates over 100 child care, early education, elementary and middle schools in the United States and Canada.
